SPECIAL ISSUE

THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE 7TH INTERNATIONAL PALYNOLOGICAL CONGRESS (PART II)

Edited by

E.M. TRUSWELL and J.A. OWEN

Bureau of Mineral Resources, Geology and Geophysics, G.P.O. Box 378, Canberra, A.C.T. 2601 (Australia)

CONTENTS

Late Cainozoic palynology of circum-pacific regions

Northeast Asian pollen records for the last 150,000 years from deep-sea cores V28–304 and RC14–99 taken off the Pacific Coast of Japan
L.E. Heusser (Palisades, NY, U.S.A.) 1

Late-glacial and Holocene vegetation and climate of subantarctic South America
Calvin J. Heusser (New York, NY, U.S.A.) 9

Glacial climates and their effects on the history of the vegetation of Chile: A synthesis based on palynological evidence from Isla de Chiloé Carolina Villagran (Santiago, Chile) 17

Quaternary palynology and climate

Palyno-plankton stratigraphy and environmental changes during the Holocene in the Bengal Basin, India
Prasantha K. Sen and Manju Banerjee (Calcutta, India) 25

Late Holocene vegetational changes on the Illawarra Coastal Plain, New South Wales, Australia
R.L. Jones (Coventry, U.K.) 37

Tertiary palynology

Tertiary climate and phytogeography in southeastern Australia
Helene A. Martin (Kensington, NSW, Australia) 47

Palynological evidence for the early to middle Eocene vegetation and climate history of New Zealand
David T. Pocknall (Lower Hutt, New Zealand) 57

Climatic changes in the Hungarian Miocene
Esther Nagy (Budapest, Hungary) 71

Palynology of the Cretaceous/Tertiary boundary

Geologic and biostratigraphic framework of the non-marine Cretaceous-Tertiary boundary interval in western North America
Douglas J. Nichols (Denver, CO, U.S.A.) 75

Palynologic studies of the Cretaceous-Tertiary boundary interval at El Kef outcrop, northwestern Tunisia: Paleogeographic implications
Henriette Méon (Villeurbanne, France) 85

Late Cretaceous to Tertiary palynofloras in Xinjiang and Qinghai, China
Wang Da-Ning, Sun Xiu-Yu and Zhao Ying-Ning (Beijing, China) 95

Campanian to Paleocene spore and pollen assemblages of Seymour Island, Antarctica
Rosemary A. Askin (Riverside, CA, U.S.A.) 105

Cretaceous palynostratigraphy

Palynological interpretation of Early Cretaceous non-marine strata of northeast China
Mao Shaozhi (Wuhan, China), Yu Jingxian (Beijing, China) and J.K. Lentin (Calgary, Alta., Canada) 115

Palynostratigrapy of Upper Cretaceous sediments, Meghalaya, northeastern India
Bharati Nandi (Nadia, India) 119

The Antarctic/Australian rift valley: Late Cretaceous cradle of northeastern Australasian relicts?
Mary E. Dettmann (St. Lucia, Qld., Australia) and David M. Jarzen (Ottawa, Ont., Canada) 131

Barremian-Aptian angiospermid pollen records from southern England
Norman F. Hughes and Audrey B. McDougall (Cambridge, U.K.) 145

Early Cretaceous angiosperms from Queensland, Australia
Dennis Burger (Canberra, A.C.T., Australia) 153

Palynology of fructifications

Ultrastructure of in situ fossil cycad pollen from the English Jurassic, with a description of the male cone Androstrobus balmei sp. nov.
C.R. Hill (London, U.K.) 165

The Late Permian sporangiate fructification Nesowalesia edwardsii Pant, 1977, from Katoomba, New South Wales, Australia
J.F. Rigby (Brisbane, Qld., Australia) and Shaila Chandra (Lucknow, India) 175

Evolutionary morphotrends in palynomorphs

Pollen of Circumpolles — An enigma or morphotrends showing evolutionary adaptation
S.A.J. Pocock (Creston, B.C., Canada), G. Vasanthy (Pondicherry, India) and B.S. Venkatachala (Lucknow, India) 179

Application of morphological lineages in Australian palynostratigraphy
P.L. Price and J. Filatoff (Kenmore, Qld., Australia) 195

Megaspore morphology and stratigraphy

Austral South American Jurassic megaspores
Marta A. Morbelli (La Plata, Argentina) 209

Jurassic palynostratigraphy

Pliensbachian palynology of the Karindal bore no.1, north-west Scania, Sweden
D. Guy-Ohlson (Stockholm, Sweden) 217

Late Paleozoic and Early Mesozoic palynofloras: Support for concepts of Gondwana and Laurasia

Permian palynostratigraphic correlations in south-western Australia and their geological implications
John Backhouse (East Perth, W.A., Australia) 229

Palynostratigraphic correlation of Lower Gondwana sediments in the Chuparbhita and Hura Basins, Rajmahal Hills, eastern India
Manju Banerjee and Ashalata D'Rozario (Calcutta, India) 239

Correlation of Permian and Triassic palynomorph assemblages from the central Transantarctic Mountains, Antarctica
Michael J. Farabee, Edith L. Taylor and Thomas N. Taylor (Columbus, OH, U.S.A.) 257

Palynofloral evidence for Middle Triassic age, Palaeoenvironments and sedimentary provenance of sediments in Borehole 5/8, western Iraqi Desert
Thamer K. Al-Ameri (Arbil, Iraq) 267

Coal palynology

Westphalian palynology of The Netherlands based on six continuously cored boreholes
J.G.M. van de Laar and W.J.J. Fermont, (Heerlen, The Netherlands) 275

Palynostratigraphy studies of Upper Carboniferous deposits from the Intra-Sudetic Basin, southwestern Poland
Teresa Górecka and Anna Górecka-Nowak (Wroclaw, Poland) 287

Dinoflagellate morphology and evolution

Peridinialean dinoflagellate plate patterns, labels and homologies
Lucy E. Edwards (Reston, VA, U.S.A.) 293

Recent dinoflagellate cyst distribution in eastern Australia
Andrew McMinn (Kensington, N.S.W., Australia) 305

Fossil ceratioids: A revision of Endoceratium dettmannae from the early Cenomanian Cambridge Greensand
I.C. Harding (Southampton, U.K.) and N.F. Hughes (Cambridge, U.K.) 311

Dinoflagellate biostratigraphy

Jurassic and Lower Cretaceous dinocysts from Argentina: Their biostratigraphic significance
M.E. Quattrocchio (Bahia Blanca, Argentina) and W. Volkheimer (Buenos Aires, Argentina) 319

Correlation of Paleogene dinoflagellate assemblages to standard nannofossil zonation in North Atlantic DSDP sites
Sarah Pierce Damassa (Winchester, MA, U.S.A.), David K. Goodman (Plano, TX, U.S.A.), Evan J. Kidson (Dartmouth, NS, Canada) and Graham L. Williams (Tulsa, OK, U.S.A.) 331

Revisions of nomenclatural types

Triprojectate fossil pollen genera
Michael J. Farabee (Barnesville, GA, U.S.A.) 341

Maturation and source rock analyses

Organic facies of Lower to Middle Jurassic sediments in the Jura Mountains, Switzerland
Georges E. Gorin and Susanne Feist-Burkhardt (Geneva, Switzerland) 349

Methods of kerogen analyses for hydrocarbon exploration

Evaluating kerogen type according to source quality, compositional heterogeneity and thermal lability
B. Horsfield (Jülich, F.R.G.) 357

Kerogen pyrolysis-carbon isotope technology: Application to source-oil correlation problems
R. Burwood, L. Jacobs and J. Paulet (Brussels, Belgium) 367

Molecular characterisation of kerogen — Applications to primary and secondary migration studies and to maturation modelling
S.R. Larter (Oslo, Norway) 379
